RE: Stanley White
Dkt# 07-00305-001
Supervision Status Report

Dear Judge Chesler:

On November 20, 2007, Stanley White was sentenced by Your Honor to a four-month-term of imprisonment followed by a three-year-term of supervision for the offense Conspiracy to Commit Mail Fraud. The offender was also ordered to pay $65,938.43 restitution in addition to a $100 special assessment fee, and abide by the following special conditions: financial disclosure, no new debt, drug testing, eight months home confinement (with electronic monitoring), and DNA testing. The offender is supervised by the United States Probation Office, Southern District of Georgia.

Since the commencement of supervision, the offender has been unable to obtain employment and is currently residing at the Augusta Rescue Mission. The probation office has conducted a financial investigation and determined that the offender does not have the ability to pay restitution at this time. However, despite the offender's failure to pay restitution, he is in compliance with the remainder of his supervision conditions.

Therefore, we ask that no court action be taken at this time. The probation office will continue to monitor and supervise the offender and advise the Court of the offender's progress.

If the Court agrees with our recommendation, please sign the attached Form 12A and return the document to the attention of the undersigned. If Your Honor requests an alternative course of action, please advise. We will make ourselves available should the Court wish to discuss this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

CHRISTOPHER MALONEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
